3. VICTIM DETERMINATION DOCUMENTS

Please enclose your victim determination documentation. Determination that you were a victim of trafficking may take several forms and may include documents from courts or federal, state, local, or tribal governmental entities. In addition, non-governmental organizations (NGOs) or human trafficking task forces may be able to provide documentation of your status as a victim of trafficking. You also may provide a self-attestation, provided that it is signed by a representative from a governmental entity, court, authorized NGO, or human trafficking task force.

Only include copies of the documentation. Do not send any original documents.

4. CERTIFICATION

I certify that I am disputing information related to my credit report. I understand that intentionally making false statements to place incorrect information on a consumer report may be punishable by law.
